 Please turn off cell phones when in the building on Shabbat.

Note to parents: We are delighted to have children at our services and in the sanctuary! They are our future. Our new building includes a Quiet Room connected to the back of the sanctuary. You may see and hear services from the Quiet Room whenever you might prefer.

Shabbat Reminds Us We Need Never Stand Alone

Shabbat is more than a private time for introspection. Shabbat is more than a pleasant day away from the office.

Shabbat is an intrinsically Jewish experience, which means that the rest and refreshment of Shabbat take on added dimension because they are structured in a Jewish fashion. Shabbat allows us to deal with the turmoil of contemporary life in the context of Judaism.

In our society, where the pace of life is hectic and where the moral ground shifts so rapidly, Shabbat is important because it can anchor us weekly in ceremonies and values sanctified by centuries of Jewish life.

Shabbat reminds us that Jews need never stand alone. We can always draw our roots in the Jewish experience, our connections to other Jews, our relationship to Torah and the covenant with God.
