 Please turn off cell phones when in the building on Shabbat.

Note to parents: We are delighted to have children at our services and in the sanctuary! They are our future. Our new building includes a Quiet Room connected to the back of the sanctuary. You may see and hear services from the Quiet Room whenever you might prefer.

A Day Speaks of Something Eternal

The Sabbath does not mean a mere not working, nor an empty idleness. It connotes something positive. It has guided the soul unto its mystery, so that it is not a day that just interrupts, but a day that renews, speaks through it, of something eternal. It is the expression of a direction for life and not just an instituted day of rest. If it were only that, or if it became that, its essence would be taken from it. It would then be only a hollow shell.
