 Please turn off cell phones when in the building on Shabbat.

Note to parents: We are delighted to have children at our services and in the sanctuary! They are our future. Our new building includes a Quiet Room connected to the back of the sanctuary. You may see and hear services from the Quiet Room whenever you might prefer.

An Exquisite Sharing with Those We Love

Shabbat is an extended meditation on the wonders of the created world and the divine presence that fills it. The weekly stopping of the clock and relief from all pressures and obligations of the workday world, from the ongoing demand to recreate and transform reality, is needed more than ever in our fast-paced world. It gives us the opportunity to enjoy the world as we have received it and to bask in its holy light. Shabbat is, if you will, contemplation turned into a way of living. Rather than the one and silent contemplative act, which lies at the heart of all prayer, Shabbat is that same contemplation turned into the mode of family and communal joy and celebration. In its ideal form, it is an exquisite sharing with those we love of our awareness that we, the world around us, and that love itself, are all gifts from the one source of life.
